Sandy, we appreciate your flexibility, your persistence and your willingness to help us educate ourselves. You are extremely patient and committed.

Sandy is a thorough professional. She is always straightforward and honest in her assessment.

Sandy has the right combination of making house hunting fun and serious at the same time. Your bubbly disposition was a good match for us.

I think Sandy is extremely good with people- has excellent listening skills- acts like a professional and not like someone out to just make a sale. Dresses well and with a flair.

Liked her manner, she seemed to have a great sense of humor and professionalism....would recommend her highly for the same reasons I chose to work with her. Also, I think she works really hard to do everything she can to sell your house.

Excellent sales person- she is in the right profession doing something she enjoys and does well.
